Canadian Business Tech100 Ranks DataMirror Third Overall

Prestigious Tech100 Ranking Recognizes DataMirror's Solid Sales Growth and Performance

TORONTO, CANADA – (June 11, 2002) – DataMirror (Nasdaq: DMCX; TSX: DMC), the leading provider of enterprise application integration and resiliency solutions, announced today that the Company placed third overall in the 2002 Canadian Business Tech100, the definitive ranking of Canada's hottest tech companies. DataMirror's overall third place ranking is based on revenue growth, profit, profitability growth and market cap growth.

"As our Tech100 ranking attests, DataMirror is a great high-tech success story," said Nigel Stokes, CEO, DataMirror. "In a year of considerable turmoil in the market, DataMirror extended the scope of its solution offerings through two strategic acquisitions and added over 170 new customers including Verizon Wireless, First American Bank, the French Navy and NBC. Our core LiveBusiness™ solutions continue to resonate in the market. Employees, decision makers, partners and customers are no longer content to wait. They want real-time access to information like pricing updates, order status, inventory and business metrics and they want it now. Security is also top-of-mind and this is driving the adoption of our LiveAudit™ and LiveResiliency™ solutions. Going forward, DataMirror's business continues to be strong and resilient with positive cash flow and an impressive balance sheet with almost $39.4 million in cash and cash equivalents."

The fifth annual Tech100 ranks Canada's top publicly-funded tech companies. To view the rankings and for more information on Canada's top technology companies, please visit <http://www.canadianbusiness.com>.
